

EAANG

Enlisted Association of the Arkansas National Guard

DATE: 25 April 2015

TO: General Assembly

FROM: Junior Enlisted Committee Chairman

SUBJECT: Junior Enlisted Committee Report

The Junior Enlisted and Conference First Time Attendee's meet at the Holiday Inn and Convention Center, Springdale, on 24 APR 15 from 1830-1930. There were over 30 members present at this year's meeting. Jeff Frisby, the EAANG President gave a presentation on what the Association does, how it can be important, and breaking through the stereotypes of the Association.

Topics of discussion and goals included:

- a. How membership is important.
- b. Past accomplishments of the Association.
- c. The current political pressure and budgetary environment that the Department of Defense has to work with.
- d. How the Enlisted Association of the Arkansas National Guard is working to make a difference, stay important to younger soldiers today, and can have an impact in legislation.
- e. The struggle of stereotyping the Association and how that limits the potential of the Association.

Mr. President, this concludes the Junior Enlisted Committee Report. Since it is an informational report only, I request that it be filed for the record without objection.
